

Freeholders Considering Fewer Constables, J. P.'s

Two proposals affecting justices of the peace and constables in San Mateo county were discussed by the board of freeholders last night, but, following debate, were referred back to the committee on legislative matters for a fuller study and report.

In its report the legislative committee proposed four fewer justices than at present. There are now eight. This would also reduce the number of constables to four.

Townships proposed were:

- (1) a coastal district to be co-terminus with the present supervisorial district;
- (2) a district from the northern limits of San Mateo county to the northern limits of Burlingame;
- (3) a district from the northern limits of Burlingame to the northern limits of Belmont;
- (4) a district from the northern limits of Belmont to the southern limits of San Mateo county.

An alternative plan, suggested by Prof. Edwin A. Cottrell, was presented, and after discussion, was referred to the legislative committee.

Professor Cottrell would reduce the number of justices only by three, and would reduce the number of townships by five. He would draw the line at the southern boundary of Burlingame, combining the first and sixth townships into Township 1; combining the second and third townships into Township 2, and creating Township 3 for the coastal, combining four and five.

In each of the two bayside townships, two justices would be provided and each would have the right to travel from city to city to handle their cases for the best interests of the people of the district.

Authority Increased
These courts would be increased in authority to handle cases up to $1000, instead of being limited to $300 as at present. The judges would be full-time justices, and law school graduates would be required for the benches.

One justice would be provided for the coastal township. He would travel from town to town in the coastal area according to the demands for his services. His court would also have the $1000 jurisdiction.

This step, it was said, would greatly relieve the work of the superior courts, giving them more time for the more important cases and removing petty suits from their hands.

Another point discussed by the board of freeholders was that of the proposed organization of a Relief Home, and other like offices.

The chief executive, after conferring with this board, would appoint a Director of Health and Welfare (health officer). Under him would be the county physician, superintendent of the Community Hospital, director of Social Service, superintendent of the Relief Home, and other like offices.

This plan was approved by the freeholders.

Nothing Final Yet
The public again was reminded by Chairman James B. Howell of Atherton that whatever steps have so far been taken by the freeholders are still to be considered tentative. By July 29, he said, the charter will have taken shape sufficiently to subject it to public discussion.

So far, he said, the freeholders have acted freely on what they have seen as best for the interests of the public. In no instance has the board listened to outside influence or been affected thereby, he said. There has been no "pressure" from any source to effect any changes so far tentatively set up, he said, and any revisionary steps taken were because some better proposal presented itself.

Couple Hurt When Auto Leaves Road
SAN MATEO, July 5.—Hilbert Herrgott, 591 Fortieth avenue, San Francisco, a sporting goods merchant, was confined in the Mills Memorial Hospital here today with serious back injuries, fractured knee and burns, as the result of an automobile accident on the King's Mountain road yesterday.

When the car broke from control, Herrgott clasped his wife in his arms to shield her and she escaped with minor bruises. The car plunged off the road, overturned and took fire.

FIRE MENACES HOME
A grass fire on 8th avenue in North Fair Oaks ignited the rear of a garage at the rear of the E. Bryant home. The Menlo Park Fire Department prevented additional loss.

ROCK WORKER HURT IN FALL

Belmont Quarryman Suffers Severe Injuries

Falling off a stone crusher in a Belmont quarry last night, Eli Puglizevich, employee of the Basich Brothers' Construction Company, incurred severe injuries to his head, ribs and back. He fell 14 feet into a rock pile.

At the Mills Hospital, where he was taken after treatment in the emergency hospital in Redwood City, the workman was found to have incurred a basal fracture of the skull, a possible fracture of several ribs on the left side, and severe contusions to the back with possible fractures of several vertebrae. His condition, according to Drs. Harry Mason and Robert Monteth, is satisfactory.

Basich Brothers have a contract for paving the Bayshore highway.

ASKS $15,577 FOR INJURIES

Teacher Was Badly Hurt In 4-Auto Road Mishap

Miss Louise Watkins, teacher in the Sequoia Union High School, today brought an action in the superior court in San Mateo county to collect $15,577.50 damages against Harry Jenkins, 900 Geary street, San Francisco, and others, as the result of injuries suffered April 3.

Miss Watkins was driver of a car which she alleges was struck by Jenkins' car near the South San Francisco underpass, inflicting severe injuries upon herself. These included a cerebral concussion, contusions of the area from the seventh to the tenth rib, contusions over the left hip and severe strain and tearing of ligaments.

Defendants besides Jenkins are F. W. McKnight, J. W. Leavitt, Mrs. Leavitt and Mrs. Jenkins. McKnight and Leavitt drove two of the four cars in the crash.

Attorney Robert Little of San Francisco filed the teacher's suit, which is the second as the result of this accident. Miss Marjorie Landers, another local teacher, asked $25,590 in a suit filed Saturday.

RELIEF FUND TRICKLING IN

Commuting Citizens Report Inability To Aid Locally

With 285 men registered as needing immediate employment, the Redwood City Employment Committee was able yesterday to report but 18 days of work. So apathetic was the interest on the part of the commuter population of the city toward the local situation that another meeting will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon to outline the future course.

The commuters, it was explained, are being forced to contribute to San Francisco relief funds, and as a result feel they cannot help locally. Funds are coming in, but in a slower manner than hoped for. It is proposed to raise $4500 locally, and the help of every individual is needed.

San Francisco Asks Cancellation Of Tax

Cancellation of taxes levied against the wooden flumes connecting Crystal Springs Lake with San Andreas Lake, valued at $29,400 on the assessment rolls, was asked today by Dion R. Holmes, San Francisco, attorney for the Public Utilities Commission, in a letter to the board of supervisors.

Holmes' letter states that the flumes were removed in January, 1932, and were not assessable on March 1.

Menlo Park Boy Is Injured In Accident

MENLO PARK, July 7.—George Kaher, 11-year-old boy living here, was injured late yesterday when he accidentally ran into the side of an automobile driven by E. J. Schmaling, 863 Melville avenue, Palo Alto. The boy was standing on the Middlefield road bridge watching excavators at work, and turned suddenly to dart across the road. At the Palo Alto Hospital it was found he was suffering from head bruises and the loss of several teeth.

TRAPSHOOT FIELD FOR CLUB O.K'D

Council Also Issues Permit To Church For Tabernacle

Permission to prepare and operate a skeet (trap shooting) field at the municipal harbor was granted by the Redwood City Council Tuesday night to the Redwood City Sportsmen's Club.

The permit is subject to the approval of Councilman Henry Beeger, City Manager E. A. Rollison and City Engineer C. L. Dingmitt, who were to inspect the site today with Art Mills, head of the club's skeet committee.

The council discussed the auditing of city books for the ensuing year, and delayed action until this year's audit is complete.

Study will be given to liability insurance for city automobiles, in an effort to obtain the most satisfactory protection possible.

Church Request Granted
E. H. Adams of Palo Alto, pastor of the Redwood City Seventh Day Adventist Church, sought and received permission to erect a temporary tabernacle near Brewster avenue and Arch street, about 60 by 100 feet in size. The permit is for three months, and the tabernacle is to be used for evangelical and Bible lecture purposes, beginning about September 1. The building is to be removed as soon as the meetings cease. The permit was granted on motion of Councilman Charles Lambert, seconded by Councilman Paul McCarthy.

Permission to conduct dances in Councilmen's Hall for a month, for $2.50 per dance, until 1 o'clock, was given to the Menlo Park Community Club. George Solari, representing the hall association, spoke in favor of the permit. Councilman Beeger made the motion.

Co. Charter Letter
A letter from the San Mateo County Charter Study Committee thanked the council for its contribution of money to the study work, and solicited further donations for four months—July to October—when a campaign in behalf of the charter will be carried on.

Councilman George McNulty felt that he wanted to see what was in the charter, before he spent money to support it.

The charter committee thought that the charter committee and freeholders were doing constructive work, and that, while it could not be expected that everybody would approve of the charter, it would probably be an improvement over present conditions.

The council laid the matter over until August.

A letter from Mrs. W. P. Roth, president of the San Mateo County National Horse Show, which is to be held at Atherton, asked for $250, which was the sum given last year by the city. The council continued the matter until its next meeting, on motion of Lambert and Councilman Charles Hilbrandt.

Local Products Urged
From the state chamber of commerce came a letter urging the council to use its influence in favor of California-made roofing for the new reservoir now being dug near the end of Roosevelt avenue. The city manager and city engineer will confer with the subcontractor who has the roofing job, and endeavor to persuade him to give full consideration to local products.

The council, following Oakland's lead, adopted a resolution opposing a plan to divert motor vehicle revenue now used for highway maintenance and construction, to the general fund.

Bids will be sought for repainting the trim of the city hall, and roof. Paint is badly needed, it was reported by the city manager and several councilmen.

Estimates are being secured for a new illuminated Redwood City sign, which would be placed at Main street and the Bayshore highway.

Councilman Robert Jones said he had heard requests for a wading pool for children at the yacht harbor, and the city engineer was asked to prepare an estimate of the cost.

Councilman Lambert advocated a stop sign or other form of protection at the intersection of Myrtle street and Harrison avenue. Children coast down the hill there, and are in danger of automobiles, it was said.

Arthur Gledhills In Divorce Court

Suit for divorce was filed with County Clerk Elmore B. Hinman in Redwood City today by Arthur Gledhills against Mrs. Martha Jane Gledhills, alleging she deserted on September 10, 1927. They were married 23 years before at Emporia, Kas., on June 28, 1904.

Manuel F. Sylva is plaintiff's attorney.

Molinari Arrives From Rome To Lead Symphony on Sunday

Coming Sunday

Bernardino Molinari, noted Italian conductor, arrived in San Francisco yesterday from Rome and was to begin rehearsals at once with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra personnel in preparation for the concert at the Woodland Theatre in Hillsborough Sunday, July 10. Mrs. Molinari accompanied him.

The program for Sunday will include Corelli's Suite from Opera No. 5, Beethoven's First Symphony, Strauss's tone poem, "Death and Transfiguration," Sibelius' "Valse Triste," Tchaikovsky's "Scherzo" from the Fourth Symphony, and a Hungarian March by Berlioz.

When Molinari first came to California four years ago to conduct the summer symphonies in San Mateo and the Hollywood Bowl, he was comparatively unknown in this country, having conducted only a few concerts in New York with the Philharmonic Orchestra and in St. Louis with the orchestra there.

Today he is one of the most popular and sought after of the European conductors who are available as guest directors. During the past winter season, this Roman who is the head of the only major symphony orchestra in Italy, that of the Augusteo in Rome, appeared with no less than six of the important American orchestras.

SEEKING $20,316 IN AUTO DEATH

Mrs. Frieda Galatoire, daughter of the late Charles C. Viohl, today filed a $20,316 lawsuit with County Clerk Elmore B. Hinman because of her father's death under an automobile at Millbrae, December 24.

The defendant is J. E. Howard, 521 Edinburgh street, San Mateo, manager of Butler Bros., a San Francisco wholesale house. Viohl was 72, and was a carpenter and mill worker, residing at 22 Fountain street, San Francisco.

His sons, Charles and Frederick Viohl, join Mrs. Galatoire in the action.

SCHOOL BOARDS HAVE FULL SAY

Even if displeased with the treatment accorded them by the board of trustees of the Burlingame Elementary Schools, there is nothing the protestants can do but wait until election time to voice their grievances, Miss Pansy Jewett Abbott said today.

There is nothing in the school law which permits the recall of school trustees, and the only way in which they can be removed during their term is by bringing complaints in the courts charging serious misconduct, she said.

$15,000 ASKED IN AUTO SUIT

Mrs. Grace Toutsch of Railroad Flat, Calaveras county, who is confined in Mills Memorial Hospital, San Mateo, with a back injury, today filed a $15,000 suit against G. M. Todhunter, Oakland, and J. Quinn.

BOARD GOES ON RECORD FOR LIQUOR

Woman Supervisor Of San Mateo Makes Motion

The San Mateo County Board of Supervisors Tuesday placed itself on record as in favor of repeal of the Wright act.

Without discussion, Supervisor Rosalie M. Brown, San Mateo, made the motion calling for the board's vote. Supervisor John W. Poole, Redwood City, seconded it, and the vote was unanimous.

This followed the bringing of the matter to the board's attention by Judge Matt I. Sullivan of San Francisco, general chairman of the Citizens' Wright Act Repeal Association of Northern California, who asked the board to take action "if it desired to."

Sullivan reported that sufficient signatures had been secured to place the liquor question on the ballot in November and that repeal will appear as proposition No. 1, and prohibition of the saloon and the set-up of a liquor control system as proposition No. 2.

This is the second time the board has gone on record in favor of a change in the liquor laws. Some months ago the supervisors memorialized congress to bring about modification so that light wines and beer could be had.

DEVONSHIRE TO HAVE PIPE LAID

SAN CARLOS, July 6.—Overriding the recommendation of Assistant City Engineer Robert Klassen, the San Carlos City Council last night granted permission to the Sierra Financial Corporation to install 15,000 feet of water pipe in Devonshire Hills.

Klassen said the pipe, which was reconditioned, was "too cheap" and "makeshift."

The council took its stand on the proviso that the California Water Service Company, which supplies the domestic water to the community, will agree to assume all costs for maintenance and breakdowns, if any occur.

COAST MAIL IS LOST IN BLAZE

Destined for Pescadero and San Gregorio, four sacks of mail were destroyed by fire and a Coastside Transportation Company truck was burned to a cinder in an unexplained fire near Lobitos, on the coast highway south of Half Moon Bay, Monday.

One pouch of mail, on the seat with the driver, James Strieto, 91 Harper street, San Francisco, was all that was saved in the fire. The blaze started as the truck, which makes a 116-mile round-trip daily between Pescadero and San Francisco, was on the last lap of the journey.

Belmont Council's Wet Vote Is Seen

BELMONT, July 7.—From all indications the Belmont City Council will go wet. Last evening at the council meeting Mayor Chris L. Jordan instructed City Attorney Albert S. Mansfield to draw up a resolution similar to the one adopted by the board of supervisors, wherein the council will memorialize Congress to amend the Volstead act to permit light wines and beers. The city attorney was also instructed to draw up a resolution advocating the repeal of the Wright act.

Permission was given to Belmont American Legion Post No. 377 for the operation of a skeet (trap shooting) field. The field will be located in the rear of the new legion clubhouse. Councilman Louis C. Vannier is chairman of the skeet committee. Next Sunday, July 10, will see the formal opening.

On motion of Councilman James P. Halloran, the council voted to pay former City Attorney Roger Sherman the $1500 due him for services rendered to the city during the disincorporation period. Sherman's former bill was $3400, and he agreed with City Attorney Mansfield to compromise and take a settlement of $1500. The council will borrow the money to pay the former city attorney. The Belmont greyhound breeders' association agreed to advance the money to the council at the opening of the fall meet.

Councilman C. J. Messner, chairman of finances, was authorized to purchase a new Ford automobile for the use of the police department.

Lions Club Holds San Carlos Meeting

Woodside Girl To Try For Place In Hurdles, Javelin

Only 13 Days Now Remain To Register

Register today if you wish to vote at the August 30 primary, County Clerk Elmore B. Hinman warned tardy voters. There are still several thousand persons wishing to vote in the August primary who have failed so far to put their names on the dotted line, he said. July 21 is the last day.

It is not chiefly in the javelin throw that Miss Silva will seek to represent the United States at the Xth Olympiad in Los Angeles in July and August, but rather in the low hurdles does the former Sequoia High school miss expect to gain new laurels.

After trying her hand at virtually every one of the women's track and field events, including the shot-put, baseball throw and sprints, Alda has finally decided that her best chances are in the 80-meter low hurdles.

Her best competitive time for the low barriers is .12.8, made at the regional tryouts at Kezar stadium in San Francisco a few weeks ago.

In Top Condition
Alda has been working out daily on the old Stanford oval and says that she has rounded into perfect shape for the 80-meter race over the low sticks. Her chief instructor has come from Willard Classen, Stanford graduate, and Bill Ellington, Dink Templeton's right-hand man in charge of the Card track team.

Under the supervision of these two men, Alda's workouts have been mapped on a gradually increasing schedule which is hoped will carry her successfully through the Chicago trials and to a berth on the Olympic squad. She has stopped the clocks in .12.6 in practice and believes that she can do better under the stimulus of competition, something which she now lacks in any great quantity because of the dearth of women hurdlers in the bay region.

Field Is Open
For that matter, there are not many outstanding hurdlers blocking Miss Silva's path to a place on the Olympic Games' team, and that is one reason for her confidence in the potential success of a trip to Chicago.

Since establishing the javelin record at 105 feet 3 inches in 1925, Alda has ceased to concentrate on that event with the result that she no longer considers herself at the top in the spear-throwing class. Her world record was broken some time ago by Lillian Copeland, and subsequently the size and weight of the official javelin were changed to make it shorter and heavier. With the new spear, Gloria Russell of Berkeley established a new record of 126 feet in June. Alda places second to Miss Russell consistently in the javelin.

There is just one hitch in Miss Silva's program for the Olympic trials, and that is the securing of adequate backing for the trip. The Redwood City Lions Club has provided her with equipment but has not found it possible to sponsor the Chicago trip. The Redwood City Chamber of Commerce and other service clubs of the city may unite in the venture. Otherwise, Alda will accept offers from other communities as sponsors of her tryouts.

Exchangites Hear Co. Clerk Speak

How the veterans' home in Napa county was founded, and how it has grown to be one of the outstanding institutions of its kind in the country, was the subject of a talk given to the Redwood City Exchange Club by County Clerk Elmore Hinman Tuesday night. Mr. Hinman has been a director of the home for many years.

Alfred Robertson was chairman. Tickets were distributed to members, which are to be sold for the club's annual water carnival at Sequoia high school plunge July 19, at 8 p. m. Proceeds go to the club's scholarship fund.

A barbecue will precede the carnival, for Exchangites and their guests.

Burlingame Board Votes Dry Repeal

BURLINGAME, July 6.—Dry as the Sahara, according to authorities, Burlingame nevertheless stands today in the wet column as the result of a three to two vote in favor of repeal of the 18th amendment.

The city which boasts that it "hasn't a bootlegger," was put on record by its council last night in favor of repeal. Mayor C. A. Buck, whose wife is active as a W.C.T.U., and Councilman Allen Hart voted against Councilman J. C. Russell's motion.

It requests Congress to bring about immediate modification of the liquor laws.

Camille is authority for the statement that the schedule for the second half will be the same as that for the first, giving the Eagles six games at home.

Following a losing streak in which the Eagles reached low ebb by dropping a game to the San Francisco Florists, cellar team of the league, Rockhold has ordered a shakeup of the team. The heavy rainfall of last winter is showing its beneficial effect upon all the plant life of the mountain sides but on nothing more than the toyon berries. Not in many years have the trees been covered with such a mass of white blossoms as they are showing now, making certain a plentiful supply of Christmas berries in the fall.

Menlo Park

The Bear Gulch Water Company will move its office to the new Louis Boetto building on the highway tomorrow. The concern outgrew its present quarters.

Mr. Boetto erected the building for the company recently. The P. G. & E. Company's agency will be in the same structure.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bracisco of Menlo Park, with their son and daughter, Mervyn Bracisco and Miss June Bracisco, and a party of friends, passed the holiday week-end at the Big Tree Ranch near Felton with Mr. and Mrs. George H. Clement. Mrs. Clement is a sister of Mrs. Bracisco. In the party were Miss Helen Mowatt of San Francisco, Miss Odette Dana of Burlingame, E. W. Hokum of San Mateo, Robert Clement and Stanley Alexander of San Francisco, and Pat Curran of Palo Alto.

Constable Jack Grill leaves today for Gold Lake, Plumas county, to fish and hunt for two weeks. The officers is to throw dull care to the winds and enjoy himself in the heart of the mountains where all is quite and peaceful, save the whispering pines under which about will slumber, forgetting all about depression and the serving of attachment papers.

Love was engaged in tamping the cannon at his home, 1020 Middle avenue, when apparently a spark was caused by friction and ignited the powder.

His thumb was badly torn and other fingers on the hand were cut and burned. Pieces of the cannon were sent into his leg by the explosion.

Love was at the city hall yesterday with his hand in a sling. He said that for a number of years he had fired the weapon, never realizing the danger that attended the operation.

This was the only casualty that occurred on the Fourth to mar the day's celebration.

California war veterans will support Senator Shortridge in his campaign for re-election, according to an announcement made yesterday by Alvin Gerlach, head of a veterans' committee that will soon start a campaign in Shortridge's behalf.

The unemployment committee will meet this evening at the city hall to arrange matters for the coming winter. All the members of the committee are urged to be present.

The card party that was to have taken place under the auspices of Native Daughters on Monday evening, July 11, has been postponed to July 25. The games is to take place in Native Daughter Hall on the highway.

The ceremony of religious clothing of Miss Marie Kovalevsky will take place in Corpus Christi Monastery tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The public is invited to witness this impressive ceremony. The young woman has been in the cloister for some time.

BURLINGAME TRIO INJURED IN COLLISION

A Burlingame woman and her two daughters were slightly injured in Palo Alto Monday when the woman's husband's automobile collided with another car at the intersection of Emerson street and Coleridge avenue.

The woman, Mrs. R. W. Buchanan of 1225 Cortez avenue, Burlingame, was cut about the right leg, and the two daughters, Elizabeth, 11, and Barbara, 6, incurred minor head injuries. Neither Mr. Buchanan nor Arnold Galbraith of 144 Seale avenue, driver of the second car, was injured.

Both automobiles were overturned in the crash.

Moose Defeat Mushrooms In Hitting Spree

Farrell's Stickwork Helps Lodge Win, 24 to 9

Redwood City Moose came through with a hitting spree Sunday that gave them a 24 to 9 victory over the Golden State Mushroom baseball team before a holiday crowd on the Sequoia high school diamond.

Kenneth Farrell, young brother of Ray Farrell of the Eagles' ball club, lead the Moose parade with a brilliant performance at bat. He hit safely five times out of six, getting a home run and two three-baggers in the course of the afternoon.

"Red" Shaler, regular Moose pitcher, was drafted for backstop duty and proved that when he isn't pitching he can hit. Shaler clouted a home run, while Burnham, his teammate in right field, also made the circuit. Vignall, shortstop for the Mushrooms, hit a homer in the eighth.

Moose Set Fast Pace
Scoring four runs on four hits in the first inning, the Moose established an early lead and put the game away safely in the fifth inning with a rally that netted 11 runs.

The Mushroom boys had their inning in the third, when they batted Van Zandt, Moose starting pitcher, out of the box. F. Delgado's single scored Paiz. Two walks and a base hit loaded the bags ahead of Vignall's triple that scored three more runs. Vignall was caught off third on Burnham's throw to Farrell while trying to stretch it into a home run.

A feature of the infield play was the Mushrooms' double play in the second, when Farrell and Lowe were retired, Vignall to Anti to Paiz.

Farrell went on the mound for the Moose in the fourth and was relieved later in the game by Driscoll.

* MORE THAN 210,000 CALIFORNIA WOMEN SAY ...

Electric Cooking is Economical...Scientifically Certain

When science turned to electricity as a means of lessening the labors of women in their household duties its greatest contribution was the electric range. When accurate thermometer temperature devices under automatic time control were made a part of the electric range, cooking became truly Domestic Science.

No woman need make guesses today with her baking—no woman need be worried about failure when she cooks with an electric range. When she cooks electrically she cooks by accurate recipe temperatures and can depend upon the precision temperature control to take all guesswork out of her most "fussy" baking.

For whole meal preparation for meats, vegetables, and cooked desserts, the woman who cooks electrically can place them all in an oven during the morning hours, leave the house for the rest of the day and come home again to a complete dinner perfectly cooked. For while she is gone the clock will turn on the clean heat of glowing electric coils and the thermometer will control the cooking temperatures.

In more than 210,000 California homes women cook not by luck but by electric cooking science. Recipes become time-after-time successes, for electric cookery is as accurate as time itself and certain as science.

See these modern marvels of cookery at your dealer's store or in your local P. G. and E. office. Electric ranges are not costly to buy and are economical to operate. Right now a Special Electric Range Offer is in effect which includes easy purchase terms.

Trinity Highway Unit Eliminates Narrow Stretch

A new four-mile section of road between Junction City and Helena on the new Trinity highway has been opened, eliminating five miles of one of the narrowest stretches on this route, with a saving of one mile in distance. The new Trinity highway between Redding and Eureka is good mountain road, offering hard surface as far as Weaverville, thence good dirt road to Junction City, with a climb of slightly less than two miles over Oregon Gulch Mountain. The new road then extends to within three miles of Helena, followed by good road to Burnt Ranch, although narrow in places and winding. Good road continues to Salyer. Oiling is in progress under control between that point and Blue Lake. The remainder of the route is oiled and paved surface via Arcata to Eureka.

From Chester to the lower end of Lake Almanor road conditions are fair, and also to Greenville, with good dirt surface to Crescent Mills and fair road with some rough places to Keddie. Scraping and oiling is under way from Keddie to Quincy, without affecting traffic. Oiled road follows to Feather River Inn, then fair road with some rough spots via Sattley to Truckee.

The Ebbetts Pass road is open from Angels Camp over the summit and to Lake Tahoe. Good conditions prevail and tire chains are not required.

The Gold Lake road, which leaves the Grass Valley-Yuba road east of Sierra City, is in fair shape for a mountain road, but must be driven carefully.

The road from La Porte is now open as far as Orono Valley but remains closed from that point to Quincy.

HOOVER HAS BIG ADVANTAGE OF UNITED PARTY BACKING HIM

The tremendous ovation accorded Alfred E. Smith at the Democratic convention in Chicago clearly demonstrated his popularity with that body. He is worshipped by millions of voters of the old organization. Smith will support the nominee of his party—he could not do otherwise. Will those millions who followed him four years ago, join with him in voting for Roosevelt in November? The election of the New York governor depends largely upon what action these voters take. Should they remain passive, taking no part in the campaign, then Roosevelt is doomed to defeat.

The bitterness of the 1928 campaign still exists. It will take more than the olive branch to appease Smith's followers. Roosevelt needs Tammany and Smith's supporters in New York to carry the Empire state and without these agencies he will fail. Roosevelt needs New York to win the presidency. He cannot secure the vote of that state unless he has a united party. This he has not and must lose.

On the other hand Hoover's party is united in that state, and the party is back of the president. If Hoover secures the vote of New York, he is certain of success for he will carry the east and west and many of the middle states and may land a few of the southern states.

Hoover is certain to win the November election. He cannot lose. The voters of the country have faith in the man. They will show the confidence they have in him by giving as big a majority as they did in 1928.

Ben Wins 880 After Losing 440; Trojans Take I. C. 4-A

By Ray Leavitt

The great Eastman was beaten! With the I. C. 4-A track meet forty-eight hours in the past, the victory of William Carr, Pennsylvania quarter-mile, over Stanford's record-breaking "Big Ben" still remains the chief topic of conversation for surprised and shocked track fans who await the next meeting of the two stars at the final American Olympic trials at Palo Alto, July 15-16.

A second-place performance in the 440-yard race which he stepped in 47.1 seconds and a 1:51.9 in the half-mile an hour later apparently are of secondary importance to the fact that he was beaten in the quarter-mile, a distance that he has run several times under 47 seconds flat, the winning time of Carr Saturday.

Eastman has been beaten before over the 440-yard route. Vic Williams of U. S. C. did it twice last year. Carr performed the feat last Saturday, running the fastest time in his life to do it. A runner who is called upon to run two gruelling races in one afternoon in a meet that boasts of the best runners in the country can be beaten in one or both, regardless of records in previous meets.

Ben Off to Slow Start
It's true that Eastman did not have the smooth running form that he has had in other meets. Getting off to a bad start, Ben had to put everything he had into keeping the pole position. He held it up to the final 100 yards of the race, where Carr with a sprint as great as any ever seen in a track meet drew abreast and then ahead of the Stanford runner to break the tape a stride in the lead. Carr's time bettered the recognized world record of Ted Meredith by two-fifths of a second. So did Eastman's, one-tenth of a second slower than Carr's.

"Big Ben" showed that he had the stuff with which champions are made by coming back in the 880 to run the legs off a fast field and win in 1:51.9, which, bettered by three-tenths of a second, the meet record established by Phil Edwards in 1929. After being beaten an hour before in the 440, Eastman showed plenty of fortitude in coming back to win the half-mile.

No alibis were offered by Eastman or Dink Templeton, his coach for Ben's defeat in the quarter. "I'll probably do him a lot of good," remarked Templeton after the meet. "But if Eastman is not arbitrarily selected for the 400 or 800 meter runs on the Olympic team, he positively will not run both races at the final tryouts at Palo Alto July 15 and 16. I will enter him only in the 400 meter, and I'm certain that he will win it."

Trojans in Record Score

It was a great day for the West Saturday at Edwards Stadium, Berkeley. As expected, the University of Southern California athletes won with a total of 62½ points. Stanford was a poor second with 33 markers; Yale finished third with 24½; California and Harvard, tied for fourth with 12 points each; Pennsylvania and Cornell each tallied 11, while the rest of the schools gathered from one-quarter point to nine for the day.

Frank Wykoff, U. S. C., defeated Bob Kiesel of California in the century, one of the feature races of the day. Kiesel came back in the quarter-mile, however, to beat his Trojan rival.

Other winners were Joe McCluskey, Fordham, two-mile; Joseph Mangano, Cornell, mile; Harold Fates, Yale, low hurdles; Eugene Record, Harvard, high hurdles; Bill O'Connor, Columbia, and Bob Van Odel, U. S. C., tied in high jump; Barber, U. S. C., broad jump; Metcalf, Dartmouth, javelin; Thompson, Yale; Miller, Stanford; Graber, U. S. C., tied in pole vault; Jones, Stanford, discus; Gray, Stanford, shot-put; Zarembo, N. Y. U., hammer throw.

ORATORY

Democratic oratory has drummed for days on the ear of the nation. What clean-cut, constructive suggestion has been offered for the relief of present conditions?

It is true that the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment has been demanded. If that is a panacea for our present ills, we are easily cured. Otherwise, Democratic statesmanship has been sterile.

The theme song of the convention has been the sins of Republicans. The Republicans have ruined the world. What to do about it, the Democrats do not know, at least do not tell.

Mr. F. Lane, eminent editorial writer, suggests that in blaming everything on the Republicans, the Democrats consider how many Republicans are in Europe. He hints that perhaps the World War, which the Democrats nearly kept us out of, had something to do with piling up the tremendous debts that threaten the solvency of the world. His suggestion tends to the idea that whosoever would lead us into the promised land should have some rough sketch of the road.

Howling in the wilderness is not statesmanship. — Orange Daily News.

Transportation of congress members is said to cost the United States about $175,000 annually.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

THE LA HONDA ROAD

No further proof of the inefficiency of the San Mateo county road system is needed than the present had condition of the La Honda road. We don't mean the hairpin curves. To eliminate them requires a new survey and an almost completely new road on modern specifications. What we refer to are the broken edges of the pavement on many of the curves and the potholes, which make driving hazardous and unpleasant.

The La Honda road is no out-of-the-way country lane. It is one of our main traveled arteries. Drive over it any Sunday and see for yourself.

Some of the worst curves on both sides of the grade have been eliminated during the last two years. There was a good deal of work done on the road this past winter, due to landslides. So much for giving credit where it is due.

But why not mend the pavement and fill up the potholes, which make the road a miserable one to drive? So far as the curves are concerned it is not an unpleasant or particularly dangerous road, especially on the bay side. Those of us who travel it frequently have grown to like its leisurely route up one side of the hump and down the other, through the redwoods, madroños, and manzanitas.

The thing is the road is neglected. And it always has been and always will be neglected, just like most of the roads in the county, until we have a unified road plan and one man in charge whose business it is to build and repair the roads of San Mateo county.

We have every reason to believe that the new charter will solve the county's road problem, but in the meantime the La Honda road needs repairs. We noticed the engineer's chalk marks on the road, which mean that County Engineer James S. James is on the job as usual, but his hands are completely tied. He can survey all the roads in the county, but he cannot lay out surveys for new roads until he wears himself out, and without power to put his plans into effect, it avails nothing.

We have the increasing and alarming unemployment problem staring us in the face. We see the hoeing weeds and dry grass into neat piles along some portions of the highways. A good enough idea, but when there is not little money to spend, why not put it into more permanent work?

The La Honda road needs repair. It will not take much money to do it if it is put in the right spot. Let his kind and yet make enough maybe we'll get action. — Belmont Courier.

LOCAL UNIVERSITIES

When the candidates for senate and assembly come around electioneering it might be well to ask them how they stand on the ambitious plan of certain municipalities and some educators in high places to establish a system of local universities up and down the state to operate in direct competition with the University of California at Berkeley and Los Angeles. The proposal, so much favored by chambers of commerce and newspapers in the affected cities, was strongly supported at the 1931 session of the legislature and it will again be to the fore in 1932. Incomprehensible as it may seem that the already groaning taxpayers should be asked to shoulder that additional educational burden.

Every child in California is entitled to all reasonable facilities for education and the development of such talents as he may possess. In pursuit to that axiom the State of California has set up an elaborate system of free learning from the rural school house to one of the world's greatest universities. If there be weak links in the system they are much nearer the bottom than the top.—Grass Valley Union.

COURTS IN MIDDLE OVER AIR TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS

Courts and legislatures have been trying for years to decide what to do about the problems of damage suits in automobile accidents.

But this problem is nothing to what they may face in the future as traffic in the air increases. The near impossibility of obtaining witnesses to such accidents makes it difficult to secure the right kind of testimony. Indeed, it may be necessary to set up an entirely new set of laws standards.

Just now the New York courts are struggling with a case arising out of a mid-air collision between two planes. One of the owners wants damages.

The question of right-of-way is not so well defined in the air as on land and sea.

Unquestionably it will be a good many years before the question ceases to vex judges.—Sacramento Bee.

AQUATICS, POLO GAME, DANCES FORM PROGRAM AT MENLO CLUBS

INDEPENDENCE DAY festivities at the Circus Club in Menlo Park began Monday morning with a horseback ride, and barbecue breakfast at Searsville lake. In the afternoon, the San Mateo Reds, captained by Will Tevis, defeated the Circus Club polo team led by Drury Saunders and Elmer Jennings.

A program of aquatic sports was given. Swimmers, successfully competing in various contests, were Frank, Felix Jr. and Carol McGinniss; Marion and Elizabeth Gerrard, Barbara Payne, Robert S. Odell Jr., and Bob Strub, all participating in the children's relay race.

A supper dance, attended by 300 members and guests, closed the Fourth of July celebration. Aquatics with feature races, formed the program at the Menlo Country Club, where more than 200 gathered about the pool. Louise Van Sleet of Palo Alto was the winner of the silver cup in swimming.

Dignity, Serenity At Mt. Vernon

Visitors to Mount Vernon are sure to be impressed with the dignity and serenity which pervades the entire estate. The design for Mount Vernon, planned in 1783 is supremely simple and at the same time most interesting and a rare original scheme, according to the Division of Information of the United States George Washington Bicentennial Commission. It is gracious and warm and inviting, and was all of this when its trees were young and the ancient boxwood was just beginning to grow.

He can survey all the roads in the country, but he cannot lay out surveys for new roads until he wears himself out, and without power to put his plans into effect, it avails nothing.

We have the increasing and alarming unemployment problem staring us in the face. We see the hoeing weeds and dry grass into neat piles along some portions of the highways. A good enough idea, but when there is not little money to spend, why not put it into more permanent work?

The La Honda road needs repair. It will not take much money to do it if it is put in the right spot. Let his kind and yet make enough maybe we'll get action. — Belmont Courier.

When the candidates for senate and assembly come around electioneering it might be well to ask them how they stand on the ambitious plan of certain municipalities and some educators in high places to establish a system of local universities up and down the state to operate in direct competition with the University of California at Berkeley and Los Angeles.

The proposal, so much favored by chambers of commerce and newspapers in the affected cities, was strongly supported at the 1931 session of the legislature and it will again be to the fore in 1932. Incomprehensible as it may seem that the already groaning taxpayers should be asked to shoulder that additional educational burden.

Every child in California is entitled to all reasonable facilities for education and the development of such talents as he may possess. In pursuit to that axiom the State of California has set up an elaborate system of free learning from the rural school house to one of the world's greatest universities.

If there be weak links in the system they are much nearer the bottom than the top.—Grass Valley Union.

COURTS IN MIDDLE OVER AIR TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS

Courts and legislatures have been trying for years to decide what to do about the problems of damage suits in automobile accidents.

But this problem is nothing to what they may face in the future as traffic in the air increases. The near impossibility of obtaining witnesses to such accidents makes it difficult to secure the right kind of testimony. Indeed, it may be necessary to set up an entirely new set of laws standards.

Just now the New York courts are struggling with a case arising out of a mid-air collision between two planes. One of the owners wants damages.

The question of right-of-way is not so well defined in the air as on land and sea.

Unquestionably it will be a good many years before the question ceases to vex judges.—Sacramento Bee.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pritt of Bear Gulch road were hosts on the Fourth to about fifty relatives and friends, who enjoyed an old-fashioned barbecue and dance.

Residents of Woodside were entertained on the evening of the Fourth by a display of fireworks from the Wobber estate. Both Mrs. Edward Wobber and Mrs. Herman Wobber entertained members of their respective families over the holiday.

Continued Quiet In Cal. Wheat Market

Domestic markets ruled generally steady during the week ending July 1 with favorable prospects for the new spring wheat crops in both the United States and Canada and continued dull export inquiry for North American grain, largely offsetting the low threshing returns and small marketings of the new winter wheat in Southwestern areas, according to the Weekly Grain Market Review of the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Foreign markets continued quiet with prices registering moderate declines under the influence of dull inquiry for foreign wheat and the generally favorable prospects in important producing areas of Europe and also to some extent by the weakness in Winnipeg following the unusually heavy country marketings. Feed grains were weak with prices tending downward despite the light offerings. Generally favorable prospects for new feed grain crops continued to be an important weakening factor. Rye markets were dull with wheat and continued lack of export inquiry. Corn markets were largely dominated by a slow shipping demand and lack of inquiry from feeders and industries although offerings were in slow request.

CROONERS—BAH!

SALT LAKE CITY — Even deer have a strong dislike for the radio crooners, according to A. G. Nord, supervisor of the Wasatch National Forest near here. He reports that his experiments show that deer will approach a radio set that is playing ordinary music in a forest ranger's cabin, but, when a crooner gets to warbling, deer will turn up their noses in disgust and disappear.

SEA SCOUTS AT HOME PORT FROM PARADISE COVE CRUISE

Redwood City Sea Scouts had returned today from a three-day cruise over the Fourth of July holidays as the launch "Challenger" tied up at the float of the Redwood City Sportsmen's Club and the 21 young sea campers disembarked with their luggage. The cruise was in charge of John W. Rhoda, skipper, and Brenton Werder, chief engineer.

Leaving Redwood City at 8 a. m. Saturday the Sea Scout cruiser headed out the creek and directed a course for the San Mateo bridge and the Aeolian Yacht Club, Alameda. After a short stop at the club the boys visited the Oakland Yacht Club and inspected the old square-rigged clipper ships along the Estuary. After a picnic lunch the pilot headed for the bay and Paradise Cove. Passing Yerba Buena island rough seas and wind were encountered which brought out the sou'westers and gave a thrill to the voyagers as the spray drove over the gunwales. But after an hour's battle the lee of Angel island was reached and the rest of the journey was in calmer water. The cove was perfectly sheltered and warm and an ideal camp was made on the sandy beach, where supper was cooked and beds made up. The starboard crew, under Bos'n Sam Eastburn, kept watch the first night aboard ship.

Sunday, the crew explored the shore line and later motored along shore to Sausalito and return. The weather was especially warm and much sun tan was added to already browned backs. Many yachts and motor cruisers were anchored along shore or sailing here and there on the bay. Monday, a run was made past San Quentin point and to McNear's landing, where the fleet was bass fishing. Anchoring here for a time the boys tried their luck but the fish were not biting that day. At 11 a. m. the hook was pulled in and the motor sailer steered toward home. Running past the Brothers and Red Rock they soon were off Richmond. It was decided to visit Richmond Harbor so the boat circled the harbor and motored out through the shallow channel towards the Key Route pier. About this time, opposite the Golden Gate, the bay opposite the Golden Gate, the bay decided to do her stuff and she did everything except turn the boat upside down. Some Sea Scouts put on slickers, some took off their shirts to keep them dry under the deck and took it on the bare backs. It was exciting for an hour or so, but the boat proved her worth and rode them like a cowboy on a wild bronco. On the run down the bay south the sails were hoisted and assisted the motor to add a couple hours more to the speed. Driving before the storm and waves the boat wallowed and sped along to the great satisfaction of the crew, who like nothing better than plenty of action while aboard. The run from McNear's was made in six and one-half hours. The Sea Scouts aboard were Cliff Woodhams, John Rhoda Jr., Ira Carlock, Sam Eastburn, Jim Hanlon, George Jim and Ralph Rhoda, Fred Thorn, August Thorn, Wilbur Woodhams, John Diehl, K. Carlock, L. Werder, F. Hatley, D. Barry, Max and Bob Shaffer and Chris Kane.

The marine motor which was purchased for the Sea Scouts by the Redwood City Kiwanis Club was in excellent condition and did not miss a beat on the whole trip.
